SALT OF THE EARTH

The North Norfolk Exhibition Project's annual site-specific

Marcela Trsova, 'Light Vessel', 2008 contemporary exhibitions in the dramatic setting of the Grade 1 listed Salthouse Church, overlooking the marshes and coastline, have achieved an enviable reputation, and huge following, over the nine years of their existence and this year's, themed around the 'Salt of the Earth' (2 July to 2 August), promises to be no less revelatory.

Curator Simon Martin, of Pallant House Gallery (but Norfolk born), has built an intriguing show on a theme that has not only Biblical references, but local historical and geographical threads also - Salthouse was 'a house for making salt' in the Domesday Book. He has got some stary East Anglian-connected names involved too - Anna Maria Pacheco, Maggi Hambling and Colin Self among them - but it is the perhaps less familiar that may sometimes make just as striking an impression, Marcela Trsova's saltencrusted boat for example. NU
