‘UNSEEN 1963’

What:- Selling exhibition of unpublished photographs taken at Southend-on-Sea Odeon cinema in 1963 by local press photographer.

An exhibition of Black & White photographs taken in 1963 by a local press photographer that have never before been printed. The images include most of the ‘Pop Stars’ of the time who played at the Southend-on-Sea Odeon.

Most interestingly, presently, are six informal images of the Beatles, taken when they were ‘supporting’ Roy Orbison, a situation that quickly changed!

Other images, including The Rolling Stones, Bo Diddley, the Everley Brothers, The Kinks and Cliff Richard are some of the fifty unseen photos in the exhibition.

High quality Silver Gelatin copies will be available to order.

When:- Saturday 7th. November - Sunday 29th. November 2009

Where:- Atelier Gallery, 96 Broadway, Leigh-on-Sea, Essex.
