WLADYSLAW MIRECKI 'On My Doorstep'

After a three year gap, watercolour painter and co-proprietor of Chappel Galleries, Wladyslaw (Waj) Mirecki, will be exhibiting his latest collection of work. The show will be held at Chappel Galleries, Colchester Road, Chappel from Saturday 14th November until Sunday 6th December 2009 open Thursday to Sunday 10am to 5pm.

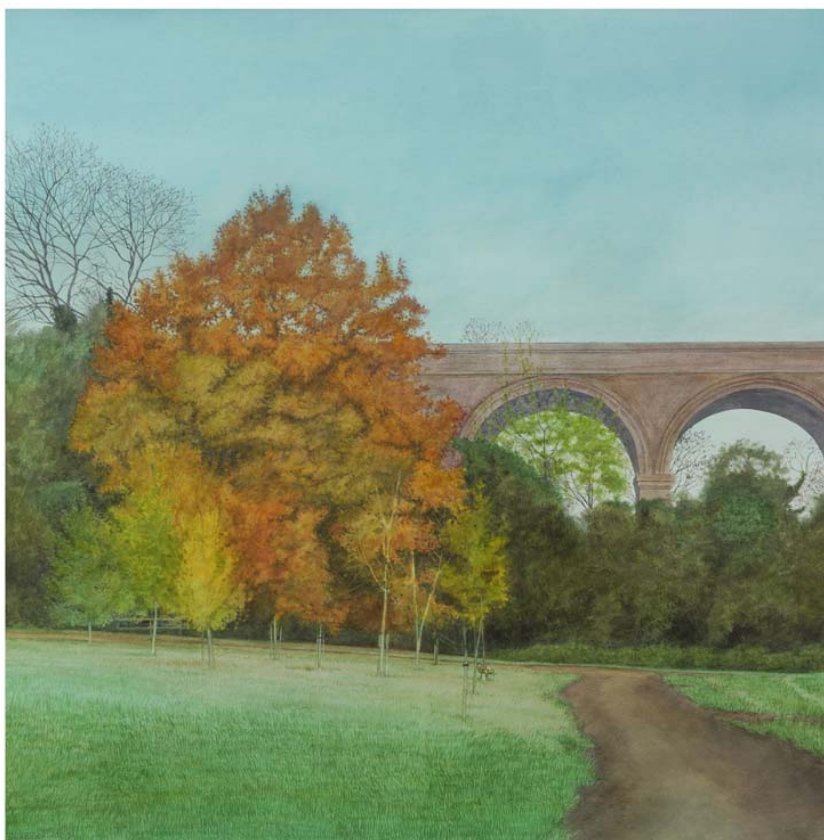

The exhibition is called 'On My Doorstep' featuring mostly local views of the villages of Chappel and Wakes Colne, often depicting the spectacular Chappel Viaduct, although one or two go as far afield as Tollesbury and Frinton, favourite haunts of this Essex born Artist. Waj was born in 1956 in Chelmsford, to Polish parents and feels a strong affinity to his home county.

Since his successful exhibition at Chappel in 2006, Waj has had his work selected for numerous exhibitions in London and around the country, winning a prize in the 2007 Sunday Times Watercolour Competition, London and third prize in the 2008 Lynn Painter-Stainers exhibition also in London.

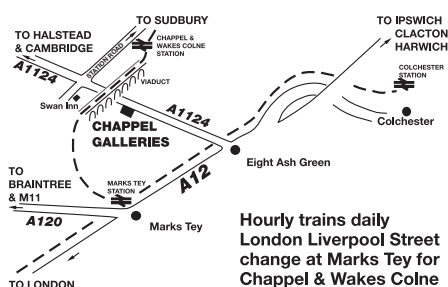

Forty watercolours, painted over the last two to three years, will be in Waj's Exhibition 'On My Doorstep'.

All works will be for sale.

Waj and his wife, Edna, look forward to welcoming you to this Exhibition which celebrates the artist's deep affection for the countryside.
