

ARTYFRIENDS AFTERNOON

POSK GALLERY, the Polish Cultural Centre,
238 - 246 King's St

Monday 21st September until Friday 2nd October, 11am to 9pm daily

"A coming together of artists from all over the world but living in London with a global knowledge of the art scene, have announced their first show to take place by kind invitation at the POSK GALLERY, the Polish Cultural Centre, 238 - 246 King's St. Ravenscourt Park, Chiswick, London W6. This grouping of artists is the brainchild of Mali, born in Mumbai, well known in London as an elegant and witty artist who regularly organises exhibitions in many galleries throughout London. The participating artists are Felma Marifi Barbo an emerging artist showing new work, Jon Gershon poet, printmaker and video artist, Peter Kirkillo, a Polish etcher and printmaker, Kath Montagu a painter based in the Kew area whose work is a reflection of Kew Gardens, and Jill Rock who paints trees and fragments of wood found wherever in the world. ARTYFRIENDS AFTERNOON runs from Monday 21st September until Friday 2nd October, 11am to 9pm daily. "
