

PRESS RELEASE

The BIG Art Affair.

WHEN: May 20th – 23rd May 2010

WHERE: Dulwich Hamlet FC Dog Kennel Hill London SE 22 8DB

The BIG Art Affair is very carefully positioning Collectives, international Artists and Galleries within London's newest and most exciting Art Fair. TBAA are currently accepting submissions for a limited time only from all of the above. If there is one Art fair you exhibit at in 2010 make it 'BIG'.

With over a third of the stands already sold we are very excited to see such a strong cast emerging including international galleries and artists and would recommend a speedy response. For all interested parties please enquire at info@thebigartaffair.com

The Big Art Affair is a company that in its inception is committed to being a socially responsible organization. True to our core beliefs in supporting not only up and coming young artists but also local initiatives, charitable enterprise and the education of the young at art, we have dedicated time, resources and space within TBAA to the inclusion of local schools, London Art Schools and selected three charities for whom we will raise awareness and funds. In addition to this TBAA are committed to running a green event utilizing a sustainable energy source where possible.
