The Art Exhibition will be open at the Royal Opera Arcade Gallery for press only on July 5th from 11.00 - 15.00 pm for a showround, meeting with the artist, interviews and gallery hospitality.

The show will have a preview on July 6th at 6 pm and will open to the public from the 7th at 11 am daily for one month till August 6th 2010.

Colin Frooms is a British artist that paints in the old Masters style. For the past 10 years he has dedicated his time to painting rather than exhibiting and now has a large body of work unseen by the public.

This exhibition is the first of a series of shows to be held at the Royal Opera Arcade gallery to exhibit Colin's series of artworks ranging from pastel and pencil on card nude portraits to large scale 9ftx9ft oil on canvas works.

Colin was born in London and he studied at the Hornsey College of Art and later at the Royal Academy School of Fine Art.

Most of Colin's paintings are lifesize to express the full impact of the subject. Some of the paintings on display have a retro atmosphere and the style evokes the Dutch and Venetian masters in particular Titian.
