

STORM FINE ARTS

Fine Art Gallery located in Cambridge and Burnham Market, Norfolk

Storm Fine Arts Opens in Burnham Market, Norfolk

Storm Fine Arts has now opened on the Market Place in Burnham Market, Norfolk. Our Summer Exhibition is opening on 2nd July until 1st September and will show some of Britain's greatest artists alongside emerging artists from the surrounding area. We have fine art & antiques spanning over six centuries, photography and craft such as woodwork, pottery and jewellery. We are open from 10AM -5PM everyday and our renovated space allows us to create a very exciting exhibition with something for all tastes and budgets!

We would like to invite you and your friends to our private view on 2nd July from 6PM - 9PM. There will be a selection of canapés and wine will also be served. Please join us and enjoy our new collection.

Artists include Patrick Hughes, Paul Stevenson, Terry Frost, Christopher Wood, Andrew Sheppard, Hollister Lowe, Tessa Newcomb, Peter Blake, Ben Allen, Anwar Hussein, Elaine Pamphilon, Sandra Blow, Joan Miro, Marino Marini, Mr Brainwash, Howard Hodgkin, Jo Niemeyer, Beka Smith, Stewart Lees, Nick Elliott, Bernard Buffet, Gwen Raverat, Lee Krasner, Ben Nicholson, David Hockney, Henry Moore, Jean Lagadec, Emma Jeffryes, Robert Indiana, Gilbert & George, Victor Vasarely, Cecil Touchon, Fernand Leger, Mary Fedden, Victor Pasmore, Richard Chapman, Juanita Kerman, Patrick Heron, Matt Forster, Mary Ford, Roy Lichtenstein & Mary Newcomb.

The new gallery will be operating as usual from the 6th April, with constantly evolving mixed exhibitions. More details can be found on our website, the details of which are below.
