Colin McCallum, Interference: Blue, Orange, Purple, Red, Acrylic on canvas, 2008

Bicha Gallery are thrilled to welcome six new artists to their growing group as they head to the London and Amsterdam Affordable Art Fairs. New artists include; emerging British ceramicist Anna Barlow – an apprentice of Kate Malone's; established British abstract painters Colin McCallum and David Oates; emerging Greek painter Paraskevi Plevri; Australian artist Janelle Humphreys with a series of frottage graphite rubbings, British photographer Robin Forster and British sculpture and lecturer Philip Booth.

This work will expand the gallery's far reaching collection of member artists including Dr Lisa Anderson, Eric Bourdon, John Bryson, John Crossley, Zoë Schieppati-Emery, Ann Mary Gollifer, Claire Malet, Derek Marks, Annie Parker, Eleonore Pironneau, Daniela Schneider and Anna Toppin amongst others.
