

23rd Summer Show

Atkinson Gallery, Millfield

9 July – 11 August 2012

Private View: Monday 9 July, 7-9pm.

PRESS RELEASE

Celebrating the passion and energy of local artists, the Millfield Summer Show is firmly established as one of the highlights of the exhibition calendar. In recent years this hugely popular show has welcomed artists from further afield, and always features a diverse range of works, from the traditional to the more contemporary. An added attraction is the affordability of the pieces on display, and artists enjoy the prestige of exhibiting in the Atkinson Gallery's fantastic space and the chance to win prize money totalling £1500.

Evolver Prize 2012

This year the Atkinson Gallery is delighted to be hosting the tenth anniversary Evolver Prize exhibition, running alongside the 23rd Summer Show. Every year Wessex-based artists are invited to submit actual cover size 2D work in any media for selection to appear on the front cover of Evolver's July and August issue.

Judges will include Simon Barber (Editor, Evolver), Michelle Henning (Artist, Senior Lecturer UWE, Bristol) and Paul Maxfield (Director, Atkinson Gallery).

Future Exhibitions

The Atkinson Gallery's autumn 2012 programme will include The Urban Wastelands Project, presenting artist Day Bowman's new body of abstracted paintings in association with film and music, and photography from Axbridge-based fine art photographer, Barry Cawston.
