Sculpt Gallery's 2nd Exhibition since its opening in February this year, is Woman Past & Present', which runs until 5 June.

The exhibition focuses on sculpture inspired by the female form, reflecting influences from ancient cultures as well as present day socio-political issues affecting women today. It showcases a rich and diverse selection of work, including sculpture by artists of international recognition as well as artists in the East Anglia region. Featured artists are:

Maurice Blik ATC PPRBS. FRSA - Sculpt Gallery's principal and resident artist; David Begbie ARBS; Billie Bond; Roland Piche ARCA FRBS; and Hilary Simms.

The exhibition offers something for everyone with prices ranging from £165 to £20,000. Viewings are by appointment.

Note to Editors: Sculpt Gallery was launched in February 2012 and is dedicated to promoting the best of contemporary British sculpture and fine art ceramics. The Gallery's principal and resident artist is Maurice Blik, with the Gallery holding a permanent and comprehensive collection of his work. In addition, Sculpt has an exciting programme of exhibitions throughout the year showcasing sculpture and ceramics by leading and up-coming artists. Our group Summer Exhibition will take place from July 22 - 31 August.
