Sweden is known for its bustling arts scene. With a great sense for an artistic design language and an understanding for creativity, the Swedish Galleri40 based in Stockholm, has curated a special exhibition for London's art lovers.

Visitors will be able to experience works of art by 22 contemporary Swedish artists.

These have been selected according to their artistic merits and their achievements both internationally and as well as in Sweden.

The exhibition will showcase works in the form of oil, acrylic, watercolor, but also textiles and sculptures.
