

William Selby RWS, NEAC, RBA, ROI
first One-Man show at The Russell Gallery, Putney
7- 23 February

William Selby is one of Britain's leading colourists: he is from Yorkshire from a Mining family. Self taught, he has the most wonderful sense of design. The still life paintings are built up in layers, the flowers and bottles and plates seem to float in the paintings. His distinctive landscapes of his Native Yorkshire are abstracted fields, full of colour.

He is in collections throughout the world and has won numerous awards. William paints in oils, acrylic and mixed media. A member of the Royal Watercolour Society, the New English Arts Club, Royal Society of British Artists and the Royal Society of Oil Painters.

Paintings : Berries 16 cm x 27 cm oil on board. Black Feather, 66cm x 77 cm mixed media and Blue Box 20 cm x 26 cm.
