

The United Society of Artists press release

The United Society of Artists (UA) will hold its 92nd Annual Open Exhibition from Tuesday 14th to Saturday 21st May 2013 at the Menier Gallery, 51, Southwark Street, SE1, very near to the historic Borough Market. A wide range of exciting contemporary work in both traditional and modern styles by UA members and open entrants will be on show. Handing in day 12th May 10.00 – 11.30am .

The exhibition gives art buyers the opportunity to purchase works that would suit the domestic dimension as well as in offices, hotels and restaurants at realistic prices. There is also the chance to commission individual painters, printmakers, sculptors, tutors or demonstrators. Artists can show case their work for sale and commission. The variety and quality of the work in on show will be sure to delight and surprise. 'Good art is good art, whatever the medium' is the UA's mantra.

The UA is an active and flourishing society that attracts members from all parts of the UK and abroad. Founded in 1921 to give artists working outside London an opportunity to exhibit in the capital, it has mightily widened its horizons.
