London Potters Annual Members' Exhibition Morley Gallery

The London Potters exhibition at the Morley Gallery celebrates clay in all its forms and functions. Showcasing the work of 90 members, this yearly show features a wide spectrum of ceramics from both new and well-known artists, ranging from traditional to contemporary designs, from humorous to edgy sculptural pieces, creating a vibrant and exciting exhibition. This is the show to visit and be inspired and to invest in new and established talents.

All pieces are for sale at very accessible prices.
