PRESS RELEASE

‘Insight’

A vibrant exhibition of current works from the United Society of Artists (www.unitedsocietyofartists.com), a national independent Society now in its 93rd year. ‘Insight’ explores the relationship between the artist, the environment and society through a diverse collection of works encompassing a broad range of artistic responses from the purely aesthetic to the political and social.

The negotiation between perception, interpretation and imagination is demonstrated by works in a variety of media and styles including realism, abstraction, traditional and modern.

Members from the Society will be in daily attendance throughout the exhibition giving visitors the opportunity to discuss the works on show and so gain valuable insights into the world of the practising artist.
