Exhibition at the MENIER GALLERY
51 Southwark Street, London SE1 1RU
(24 February 2014 – 8 March 2014)

WORLDS & WORDS

Paintings and Works on Paper & Canvas

In a chance meeting whilst on holiday in Italy on Lake Maggiore, Maria and her husband Andrew, met Amos Levy in an art gallery in Luino. From that day a relationship developed culminating in Amos acting as her art consultant.

Maria Biryukova-Dutton, born in Moscow, has produced works of exceptional quality for the last 18 months. During this time she has visited the Black Sea, Italy and Sweden to seek ideas and inspiration for her works. Maria will make her UK debut and exhibit at the London Menier Gallery (24 February 2014 – 8 March 2014).

Maria is the great grand-daughter of Aleksandr Syropyatov, founder and first director of the Perm State Art Museum.
