

DEREK HARE EXHIBITION

JUNE 16 – 21, 2014

Derek Hare's new exhibition will include works from Exuma and Abaco, two Bahamian islands recently visited in the artist's search for new images. Also, Chesil Beach, the unique shingle bar stretching west from Portland on the Dorset coast, provides some interesting subject matter as do locations on the Suffolk and Norfolk coastlines and elsewhere in the UK.

With a wide range of skies and atmospheric moods, this latest exhibition promises followers of Derek Hare's work even more surprises as well as introducing new viewers to a selection of fascinating and evocative paintings.
