HEART & SOLD

17 . 03 . 14 — 22 . 03 . 14

This is visual art created by people with Down syndrome. An exhibition that's beautifully different, emotive, complex and inspired.

Showcasing an international collective of artists, including British surrealist line drawer, Lester Magoogan and American artist John P. Kelting. John's work is in the collections of former governor of California, Arnold Schwarzenegger.

Included within the exhibition and making worldwide headlines is a wonderful limited edition print of 'Rupert Flying Over The Clifton Suspension Bridge'. In June last year the original painting by Tazia Fawley, was accepted by the Duke and Duchess of Cambridge as a gift for Prince George's Nursery.

Help us bring international awareness to the talents of these artists during Down Syndrome Awareness Week. See how a condition such as Down syndrome actually creates exciting new perspectives and often strikingly original insights.
