

New Artist Fair Summer Exhibition 2014
5-7 September 2014
Friday Private View: 6pm-9pm
Open All Weekend: 12pm-6pm

New Artist Fair returns to the Old Truman Brewery in London's iconic Brick Lane for the 4th consecutive year showcasing the 'Summer Exhibition 2014'.

Exhibiting over 60 emerging and recently established artists, New Artist Fair gives the visiting public the chance to buy directly from the artists.

Founded in 2011, the New Artist Fair provides a platform for bringing the best emerging and recently established contemporary artists to market, selling their work directly to art lovers, buyers, investors and collectors in Central London gallery locations.

The New Artist Fair holds exhibitions twice per year: in March at Candid Galleries, Angel, Islington, London EC1V and in September at the Old Truman Brewery, Brick Lane, London E1.

With the aim of providing something for everyone, the New Artist Fair's Exhibitions show a wide range of styles and genres at the white walled gallery spaces, giving the visiting public the chance to explore both art and meet the artists in a friendly welcoming atmosphere.

The next exhibition, 5 -7 September, will be showcasing 60+ of the best emerging and recently established artists from the UK and around the world. On show will be a wide variety of artists covering all types of artwork including photography, landscapes, portraits and abstracts, both originals and prints at prices ranging from £20 to £1,000. Why buy a mass produced print from a high street chain, when for slightly more you can reward your home with an original piece of art? The majority of the original art for sale is priced between £150 and £500, making this art fair truly affordable.

To enhance the visiting experience, most of the artists will be available to meet with and chat to at the opening reception and throughout the weekend.

The Summer Exhibition is Free Entry for all to browse over 1,000 originals and prints in a relaxed friendly environment. All the art will be affordable and of the highest quality, enabling a wide range of buyers to invest in art while supporting new talented artists.

The Private View will be held on Friday the 5th of September from 6pm to 9pm and will include complimentary drinks.

The event will then be open all weekend on both Saturday 6th and Sunday 7th from 12pm to 6pm.
