

You are invited to an evening of inspiration and generosity

Quilts For Nepal

How a small project is making a big difference for women and children in Nepal and how you can help.

Tuesday 28th July
From 6-8pm

At the Studio Sienko Gallery*, 57 Lant Street, Borough,
South East London SE1

(1 minute from Borough Tube, 6 mins from London Bridge and 6mins from Elephant and Castle)

Inspiration

James Hopkins, Project Innovator, Kathmandu, Nepal
James will introduce the work of the project, its background and how the work makes a difference to empowering women and educating children in Nepal.

Generosity

For every quilt sold – a child gets to go to school for a year.
Rebuilding Nepal one young mind at a time.
Come and be moved and inspired and help make a difference.
Please come and join us and please spread the word — the more that come, the more women and children in Nepal benefit.

About the Venue

*Studio Sienko Gallery is an artist run space for anything beautiful, intriguing and interesting in art – sound, movement, word and visual. Olga Sienko the gallery Owner finds the quilts beautiful, with colours and composition worthy of the best constructivist paintings. Needless to say, that this movement in art was greatly inspired by tribal art and folklore of many nations. (like Malevitch and others in the early 20th Century).

Enjoy.....cheeses from Borough Market and wines from Waterloo Wines
