Summer /16

5 July - 3 September 2016

Private View Sunday 3 July 2 - 5pm & Thursday 7 July 6 - 8pm

'Reflected Observer IV' Enzo Marra

This summer, Tregony Gallery will exhibit an assortment of some of its artist's finest works and most excitingly launch the first Tregony Gallery Art Prize.

Selected from the exceptional students at Truro & Penwith College, the Tregony Gallery Art Prize celebrates the diversity of work being produced by burgeoning Cornish artists and encourages talent from the very beginning of their careers.

'Falmouth Streets I, II and III' Antonio Parker Rees-Fernandez

The winner of the prize Antonio Parker Rees-Fernandez and highly commended Rowan Jackson will be given the opportunity to exhibit alongside established gallery artists as well as recent graduates Demelza James, Aarron Stroud, Zoë Pearce and Daisy Martin from Falmouth University BA (Hons) Fine Art.

Summertime is particularly special in Cornwall with its profusion of colours and beautiful light. This abundance is reflected in the selection of work on display adding newly represented artist Timothy Betjeman and ceramist Bridget Macklin.

Robert Jones, Steve Slimm, John Piper, Charlotte Jones, Michael Praed and Lawrence Murley

Located in the heart of the ancient village of Tregony, our relaxed and friendly gallery is the perfect place to enjoy original works by emerging and established contemporary British artists.

The gallery is situated next to the characteristic Clock Tower in Tregony known as the 'Gateway to the Roseland'. We are also close to the beautiful beaches of South Cornwall, the Eden Project and the Lost Gardens of Heligan.

Check out our Facebook page or subscribe to our mailing list for the latest news on exhibitions, private views and events.

Open Tuesday – Saturday 10.00am - 5.00pm or by appointment
See website for extended Summer opening. Easy Access and Parking.
