'Snow Pattern, Iceland' Euan McGregor

Celebrating Tregony Gallery's first Anniversary under new owners Judi and Brian Green, our Autumn exhibition LandSCOPES will focus on the artist's relationship to landscape and environment. Ranging from the openness and natural beauty of the outdoors, to intimate internal spaces and the dynamism of the city, the displayed works show what can be revealed in the landscape.

Each of the artists has invested time to visit a specific location over a number of hours, days or even weeks. These locations are always changing - the light may be different from one day to the next, the wind moves, plants and trees are affected by the seasons and the artists themselves are different people every time they arrive at their easel.

To paint one's environment is to capture change, to make tangible time and memory. We will be showing work from a selection of our gallery artists side by side recent graduates Demelza James, Daisy Martin, Zöe Pearce, Aarron Stroud, Antonio Parker Rees Fernandez and Rowan Jackson and newly represented Euan McGregor, Mark Hanson, Peter Graham, Bridget Macklin and Gregory Ward.

Located in the heart of the ancient village of Tregony, our relaxed and friendly gallery is the perfect place to enjoy original works by emerging and established contemporary British artists.

The gallery is situated next to the characteristic Clock Tower in Tregony known as the 'Gateway to the Roseland'. We are also close to the beautiful beaches of South Cornwall, the Eden Project and the Lost Gardens of Heligan.
