ARK

The largest contemporary sculpture exhibition in the North West

7th July - 15th October 2017

at Chester Cathedral - curated by Gallery Pangolin

Perceval by Sarah Lucas

- ARK is a world-class contemporary sculpture exhibition which will take place at Chester Cathedral between 7 July – 15 October 2017.
- Gallery Pangolin is delighted to have been invited to curate this major sculpture exhibition for Chester Cathedral.
- The largest modern sculpture exhibition to be held in the north-west of England, it will feature 90 works by over 50 internationally renowned sculptors including Kenneth Armitage, Lynn Chadwick, Geoffrey Clarke, Elisabeth Frink, Antony Gormley, Damien Hirst, Barbara Hepworth, Michael Joo, Sarah Lucas, David Mach, David Nash and Peter Randall-Page.
- This exhibition will use the magnificent interior of the cathedral as a backdrop to extraordinary works of art as well as the beautiful and ancient spaces surrounding it. Several sculptors will be showing brand new works of art whilst some pieces will emerge for public view from private collections. It will be the first time these pieces have been seen together.
- 'Art is not only about beauty and sensuality, it can also be honest and outspoken. In placing these contemporary sculptures within the rich environment of Chester Cathedral we hope to delight, amaze, confound and challenge our audience.'
- High resolution images are available upon request of the works in the exhibition.
