

Haidee-Jo Summers ROI ARSMA
At the Russell Gallery (SW15 1JP) from 22 February to 17 March

Capturing the essence and poetry of light.

A celebration of light filled moments, from the sparkling beaches of the Algarve and Devon to the cliffs of Etretat, and along the way an appreciation of the quiet pace of English country living.

Haidee-Jo's work features fresh and vibrant brushwork coupled with keen drawing and observational skills which result in lively celebratory paintings that glow with light and sing with colour. Well known as a plein air marine and landscape painter she also develops favourite themes in the studio and is an avid sketcher.

Elected a full member of the Royal Institute of Oil painters in 2016 and an associate member of the Royal Society of Marine Artists her work is now very popular with a wide buying public. Having often appeared in The Artist magazine her first book on oil painting 'Vibrant Oils' was published in 2017.

The exhibition of Haidee-Jo Summers' work will be on display at the Russell Gallery (12 Lower Richmond Road, Putney, London, SW15 1JP) from 22 February to 17 March
