

THE SCOTTISH GALLERY

CONTEMPORARY ART SINCE 1842

JOHN GARDINER CRAWFORD

Past and Present 8 - 31 May 2006

There is no shortage of subjects within a few miles of Crawford's home in Arbroath. He is attracted to the march-lands where sea meets land, where low buildings are scoured by wind and sand, where a lighthouse gives succour to a seafarer's eye, where the chance order of a row of seagulls or reflection on a cottage window makes us pause, think and wonder.
