Memories

Jamie Primrose presents a stunning collection of new artworks of his favourite European cities, inspired by many memorable visits, including Edinburgh, London, Paris and Venice.

He captures the exceptional light and atmosphere, depicting the diverse architecture and landscapes of each beautiful city in his colourful oils and monochrome Indian inks:

from spectacular views at dusk from Calton Hill in his highly sought-after Edinburgh cityscapes, to the early morning ripples and the gleaming twilight reflections shimmering on the Thames, the Seine and his romantic Venetian waterways. He captures the unique essence of all these cities, plus glimpses of Florence, Rome and Prague in over 50 new artworks on display.

These new paintings can now be viewed online and reserved on receipt of this invitation until the Private View on Friday 2nd November. Please visit: www.jamieprimrose.com

N.B. This showcase solo exhibition will be Jamie's last at The Dundas Street Gallery until July 2008 – so it is not to be missed.
