"For the past 12 months, my family and I have been based in Vienna. It is a city we love- full of vitality, colour, music, and with a real Eastern European flavour. From the Onion domes to the Naschmarkt where we buy our spices, meat and flowers, all of life is there.

This small group of paintings will give you a taste of Vienna, and Czech Republic, which is less than an hour away. The quirky decorated buildings, the over-the-top Baroque, the Russian Church and the beautiful altarpieces have been my main subject matter. And where would I be without some gorgeous still life material? Sunflowers, and crisp white winter flowers from stunning flower shops, with gold and silver decorated cloth bought near Stephansdom."
