

Pure Tuscany

Gordon Breckenridge

17th October 2011 - 22nd October 2011

Gordon Breckenridge

Gordon Breckenridge Annual London Exhibition.

Gordon Breckenridge, one of Tuscany's best loved contemporary artists, is in London to exhibit a collection of his paintings opening on the 16th Oct 2011 (Private Viewing). Presented by Tuscan Style at The Air Gallery, 32 Dover Street, London, the collection titled "Pure Tuscany" includes 40+ of his works depicting the warmth of Tuscany with his characteristic bold use of strong colours to capture the atmosphere and feeling.

Born in Canada in 1948 where he lived the first 24 years of his life, Gordon Breckenridge moved to Florence where he graduated from the Academy of Fine Arts and subsequently studied charcoal drawing and painting with the renowned artist Nerina Simi. These 9 years of classical training provided the foundation from which Gordon went on to develop his own unique, personal style.

After years of travelling continually painting mostly in the Cinque Terre and Portofino with exhibitions there, and also, in Canada, America and Europe, in 1991 Gordon, together with his Italian wife and 4 children moved to San Gimignano, Tuscany, where he opened his own Art Gallery.

He is the recipient of many honours including two "Greenshield awards" and his paintings are to be found in over 500 collections worldwide earning him international recognition and appreciation.

Today this successful gallery is still family run and the artist continues to produce some of the finest of Tuscany's works.
