30th June - 9th July

CELEBRATING THE 150TH LONDON EXHIBITION OF THE SOCIETY OF WOMEN ARTISTS

Our Members and talented non-members will be showcasing paintings and sculpture in all media, (we have a life-sized Cheetah), along with original prints, etchings and ceramics.

We have included a special exhibition celebrating the work of prominent women artists from our Society including Dame Laura Knight, Dame Elizabeth Frink and Sylvia Gosse.

HRH Princess Michael of Kent, our Patron will open this 150th Exhibition, and present an amazing array of prizes, including a magnificent new prize: the Daniel Smith Award for 'Excellence in Colour', comprising their entire water colour range valued at around £2,500.

The Exhibition opens to the public on Thursday 30th June and runs until 9th July 2011 (closing at 1pm on final day).
