ING Discerning Eye Exhibition

Diana Mackie Scottish Landscape Painter has been invited to exhibit four paintings at The Mall Galleries in London (November 15-24) in the ING Discerning Eye Exhibition (sponsored by ING Commercial Banking), a show of small works independently selected by six prominent figures from different areas of the art world, including two artists, two collectors and two critics.

Diana lives and works on the Isle of Skye.
Her working studio and Gallery is situated above the shores of Loch Dunvegan.
The outlook is perfect for the ever changing weather fronts that are the feature of Diana's landscapes.

One of Diana's recent commissions was for the 2012 Year of Creative Scotland, when she was invited to represent five paintings depicting Scotland's National Nature Reserves.
