

Twentieth Century Welsh Portraiture Oriol Ynys Môn 20.09.14 – 01.02.15

This exhibition showcases a stunning collection of works that explore the theme of Welsh Portraiture during the 20th Century.

Over 30 paintings from the collections of Oriol Ynys Môn, The National Library of Wales and from private individuals will be featured. From informal studies to significant paintings of famous faces and local characters, the works reveal a variety of styles and different approaches to the painted portrait. It offers the viewer an opportunity to see the development and changing trends in capturing character and likeness from the early to the later part of the 20th Century.

Anthony Hopkins, Griff Rhys Jones, Dafydd Iwan and Jan Morris are just a few of the famous Welsh people on show, painted by equally famous artists such as David Griffith, Kyffin Williams, Peter Prendergast and Claudia Williams.

Oriol Ynys Môn is open daily from 10.30am to 5.00pm.

Rhosmeirch, Llangefni, Isle of Anglesey LL77 7TQ
Tel.: 01248 724444 orielynysmon@anglesey.gov.uk