Signet Contemporary Art has been trading for several years and with great pleasure opening a new home for its emerging international talent as well as established artists.

The stylishly minimalist gallery exhibits emerging, mid-career and established artists creating contemporary works on paper, paintings, fine art photography, encaustic and assemblage. The mission of the Signet Contemporary Art is to bridge various artist communities and provide its artists greater exposure to new markets.

"I know amazing artists and, over the years, many of them have asked me to help them promote their work.

It has always been my dream to open an art gallery, and when we found this great space, I knew the time was right," , owner of the gallery. "Our goal is to place our artists' work in a wide range of public and private collections

Signet Contemporary Art is proud to be hosting a first opening show featuring
