Printmakers Council launches Journeys

Join us for a special exhibition travelling from London to Portsmouth

London Print Studio — Tuesday 5th March - Saturday 16th March 2019

425 Harrow Rd, London W10 4RE

The Printmakers Council invites you to join them on a journey into print. Journeys will encompass traditional & innovative original print exploring this wide theme, from artists' personal journeys, commuting and holidays, to dream journeys, migrations and immigration, and all packed neatly in A4 frames.

Following its stay in the city, the exhibition then journeys off for a fortnight holiday to the south coast staying at:

Jack House Gallery 121 High St, Portsmouth PO1 2HW –

Monday 18th March – Monday 1st April 2019.

Exhibition Events

- London Private View & Meet the Artists: Thursday 7th March 6.30pm - 8.30pm
- The Director of the London Print Studio, John Philips, will present a talk related to his Journeys on Wednesday 13th March 6.30 – 7.15pm.
- Portsmouth Private View & Meet the Artists: Thursday 21st March 6.30pm - 8.30pm

About

Founded in 1965 by artists including Julian Trevelyan, Michael Rothenstein, Anthony Gross and Agatha Sorel, the Printmakers Council promotes the place of printmaking in the visual arts by:

- Providing information on prints and printmaking to its 250 members and the public
- Encouraging co-operation and exchanges between artists, galleries and printmaking studios and associations
- Holding regular exhibitions of original prints in the UK and abroad
